

Brexit & arbitration: will it impact the choice of Paris or London as a seat of arbitration?

Invitation – 12 April 2018

Freshfields International Arbitration partners are delighted to invite you to this event hosted by Freshfields as part of the Paris Arbitration Week (2018).

Join us for a “no holds barred” debate about the relative merits of London and Paris as seats of arbitration. Our panelists will discuss opportunities and risks resulting from Brexit. In order to encourage a free exchange of views, the event will be conducted under the Chatham House Rules. The discussion will be followed by a networking opportunity over breakfast.

Speakers: Karl Hennessee, Vice-President, Head of Litigation & Regulatory, Airbus
Peter Turner QC, Partner, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer
Nigel Rawding QC, Partner, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer

Moderator: Ben Juratowitch QC, Partner, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer

Date: 12 April 2018

Timing: 8:00 am: registration, welcome coffee/tea
8:30 to 9:30: conference
9:30 to 10:30: breakfast and networking

Address: Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP
2 rue Paul Cézanne, 75008 Paris

RSVP: Please contact Mélina M'baye to register:
E melina.mbaye@freshfields.com

We hope that you will be able to join us.